..... Glendale, Arizona
February 2007

Glendale Arts & Culture, a new monthly City of Glendale e-newsletter, is designed to keep you up-to-date on our upcoming events and programs. Each month we will feature public artworks and cultural attractions not to miss.

Public Art

Fire Medallions by Gregg LeFevre adorns Fire Station #159, Glendale's newest facility for the Fire Department. Fire Station #159 is located at 17159 North 63rd Avenue, just north of Bell Road.

Gregg LeFevre created four large bronze medallions in 2006 that showcase firefighting equipment, including hoses, bells, axes, ladders and pike poles. From a distance, the medallions appear as abstract designs and their circular shapes compliment the angular lines of the station's contemporary architecture.

Two medallions are installed along the walkway leading into the building. The other two medallions grace the building's lobby.

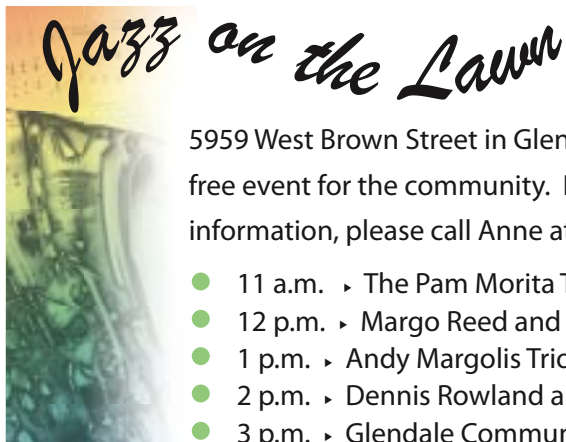

More information on Glendale's public art collection is available on www.glendaleaz.com/arts.

2007-2008 Performing Arts Granting Program for Organizations

The Glendale Arts Commission is pleased to announce the 2007-2008 Performing Arts Granting Program. We have developed this program to motivate, increase and support the performing arts in the City of Glendale.

New this year: The maximum grant award increased!

The Arts Commission awards grants up to $3,500 for performance projects, including the fields of theater, dance and music. To be considered for this granting program, the applicant must reside in or work in partnership with an organization domiciled within the city limits of Glendale. Funded projects must take place between July 1, 2007 and June 30, 2008.

Grant Guidelines, Application Form, Project Budget and Project Partner Agreement Form are online at: www.glendaleaz.com/arts and then click on Performing Arts Grants. The deadline for submitting grant applications is Friday, March 30, 2007, 4 p.m. to Glendale Library and Arts Department, Glendale Public Library, 5959 West Brown Street, Glendale, Arizona 85302.
