Arizona Mystery Author Donis Casey
Is “Crying Blood” at the Library

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – Arizona author Donis Casey will discuss and sign her fifth Alafair Tucker mystery, “Crying Blood,” during the upcoming Authors @ the Teague event at 2 p.m. on Saturday, February 26, at Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave.

After finding human remains during a hunting trip in 1915 Oklahoma, Shaw Tucker is followed home by Crying Blood, a Creek Indian boy seeking his brother’s murderer. When the boy winds up dead as well, Shaw is determined to catch the killer, while his wife, Alafair, is equally determined to keep Shaw from getting himself killed too. A fascinating, authentic account of turn-of-the-century farm life and Native American history, “[this book] will appeal to history buffs and Hillerman aficionados.” (“Kirkus Reviews”)

Originally a third-generation farm girl from Tulsa, Oklahoma, Casey worked as an academic librarian and a shopkeeper before becoming a full-time writer. She and her husband now live in Tempe. For more information, see <http://www.doniscasey.com>.

The program is free. Books will be available for purchase and signing. For more information, please call 623-930-3439.
