About the contest

The City of Glendale Conservation and Sustainable Living Office is sponsoring an amateur photography contest to celebrate the theme of "My Green Glendale." Photos should depict how Glendale residents live a green lifestyle (e.g. conserving water and energy, gardening, composting, recycling, using alternative modes of transportation, etc.) in an artistic manner.

Who will judge the contest?

Finalists will have their photographs displayed during the Glendale Green Festival on March 31, 2012 from Noon to 4 p.m. in the auditorium hallway of the Glendale Main Library (5959 West Brown Street). Glendale Green Festival attendees will have a chance to vote for their favorite photograph. Winners will be notified in April 2012.

What are the prizes?

The top three finalists will receive a green-living package valued at over $100 and have their photographs displayed on the city of Glendale's green website — www.glendaleaz.com/green. All prizes are final and non-negotiable.
