

National Historic Preservation Month

WHEREAS, historic preservation is an effective tool for managing growth, revitalizing neighborhoods, fostering local pride and maintaining community character while embracing livability; and

WHEREAS, historic preservation is relevant for communities across the nation, both urban and rural, as well as for Americans of all ages and all walks of life; and

WHEREAS, it is important to celebrate the role history plays in our lives and the contributions made by dedicated individuals in helping to preserve the tangible aspects of the heritage that has shaped us as a community; and

WHEREAS, “Sustain America- Vision, Economic and Preservation” is the theme for National Preservation Month 2006, cosponsored by the City of Glendale Historic Preservation Commission, the Glendale Historical Society and the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elaine M Scruggs, Mayor of the City of Glendale, Arizona on behalf the City Council, do hereby proclaim May 2006, as and call upon the residents of Glendale to join their fellow citizens across the United States in recognizing and participating in this special observance.

In Witness Thereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 9th day of May 2006.
