

Salvation Army Recognition

WHEREAS, since its founding in 1865, The Salvation Army is committed to making a difference within their community through the service of dedicated employees, volunteers and citizens; and

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army provides 42 million Americans with comprehensive assistance, including helping men and women overcome serious life problems such as alcohol and drug dependencies; providing assistance to families during holidays and throughout the year; and caring for disadvantaged youth; and

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army has continued with their mission for over 100 years and has expanded their outreach to more than 100 countries, and they have continued their goal of social service backed by their strong religious principles; and

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army Glendale Corps has provided service to many deserving individuals throughout the community by providing food, clothing, furnishings, utility assistance, educational and character building activities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elaine M. Scruggs, Mayor of the City of Glendale, Arizona, on behalf of the City Council and myself do hereby proclaim October 21, 2006, as a day in honor of the and encourage all residents of the community to show their commitment to helping others by attending the Harvest Festival.

In Witness Thereof, I hereunto set my hand this 10th day of October 2006.
