

BREANNA COREY

WHEREAS, Breanna Corey was named Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Phoenix Youth of the Year for 2009; and

WHEREAS, Breanna's outstanding character and involvement in the community and her Club helped her earn this honor which can be held by only one youth each year; and

WHEREAS, Breanna thinks of the Boys & Girls Club not as a second home but rather as her first; and

WHEREAS, the Boys & Girls Club has offered Breanna constant support and encouragement for many years and has been instrumental in helping her become the leader she is today; and

WHEREAS, Breanna has a passion for helping those in need and has volunteered more than 160 hours this year on various projects at Glendale High School, St. Mary's Food Bank, and at the Swift Kids Branch of the Boys & Girls Club in Glendale; and

WHEREAS, Breanna has a strong determination to succeed and plans to pursue a law degree at the University of Arizona and eventually become a criminal prosecutor; and

WHEREAS, the City of Glendale is honored to have Breanna as one of our residents, and it is our hope that after she graduates from college that she will return to Glendale to continue serving as a model for civic leadership.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elaine M. Scruggs, Mayor of the City of Glendale, Arizona, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby extend sincere congratulations to Breanna Corey and urge all citizens to join me wishing her much success in her future endeavors.

In Witness Thereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 12th day of May 2009.
