

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY RELAY FOR LIFE WEEKEND

WHEREAS, more than 27,600 Arizonans will be diagnosed with cancer this year; and

WHEREAS, the American Cancer Society is the largest nationwide community-based voluntary health organization dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major problem; and

WHEREAS, Relay For Life is the American Cancer Society's signature activity and honors cancer survivors and remembers those lost to the disease; and

WHEREAS, the Glendale Relay For Life raises money to fight cancer, greatly increases community awareness of cancer, and stimulates a real sense of relationship and camaraderie among the participants; and

WHEREAS, money raised during the Glendale Relay for Life will help support research, education, advocacy, and patient services.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elaine M. Scruggs, Mayor of the City of Glendale, Arizona, on behalf of the City Council do hereby proclaim May 1 and 2, 2010, as and call upon the citizens of Glendale to join me in recognizing the importance of the American Cancer Society's mission and celebrating survivors of cancer.

In Witness Thereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 1st day of May 2010.
