FROM THE HEART GRANTS FUNDING TO LOCAL NON PROFITS Agencies Receiving $200,000 in Grants to Assist Glendale Residents in Need

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Several local non-profit agencies received $200,000 in grants from Glendale’s From The Heart program which provides emergency and essential services to the city’s most vulnerable children, families and elderly residents.

The grant funds will be used in a variety of ways, from providing home medical equipment to the frail and elderly to providing emergency programs for victims of domestic violence and abuse. The From the Heart program enables residents and businesses to add $2 to their city utility bills each month. The program also receives one-time donations. In addition, the Gila River Indian Community donated $75,000 towards this year’s grant funding.

“Through the generosity of Glendale residents and a grant from the Gila River Indian Community, From the Heart has disseminated $200,000 back to our community,” said Mayor Jerry Weiers. “The great thing about From the Heart is that every dollar donated goes toward helping Glendale residents who truly have needs.”

This year the city of Glendale was able to provide grants to the following organizations: St. Mary’s Food Bank; St. Vincent De Paul; Arizona YWCA; Alzheimer’s Association; Hospice of the Valley; A New Leaf Inc.; the Back to School Clothing Drive; Boys and Girls Clubs; Duet; Jewish Family and Children’s Services; The Salvation Army; Teen Lifeline; The American Red Cross; Maggie’s Place; Chrysalis; Solecito; Homeless Youth Connection; Free Arts for the Abused; Community Legal Services; First United Methodist Church; and New Life Center.

“From providing emergency food boxes to helping those impacted by the devastating effects of Alzheimer’s disease, to making sure each child has what they need for school, the From the Heart program supports so many people throughout our city,” Weiers said.
