We welcome you to enjoy the many miles of trails Glendale has to offer. Please use this as a guide to safely explore the trail system throughout the city. Enjoy Glendale’s great outdoors!

PARTNERS ’N PARKS & ADOPT A TRAIL

There are two ways you can get involved in Glendale’s parks and trails systems. If you love the outdoors and helping to maintain and preserve open space in our city, The Partners ’n Parks program is a fun and rewarding volunteer program that offers residents an opportunity to give something back to their community by helping to maintain a park or certain aspects of it. The city of Glendale has 96 parks and green spaces throughout the city that are available for a group or individual to adopt. If the trails are more an area of focus for you, The Adopt a Trail program asks groups to participate in clean-up projects to enable hikers, bikers and riders to continue enjoying the beautiful trails throughout the city.

Volunteers provide valuable assistance to the maintenance and ranger staff, and make our parks and trails more enjoyable for our community. For more information, call 623-930-2691, or visit www.glendaleaz.com/parksandrecreation

TRAIL TIPS

• Stay on designated trails.
• Tell someone where you are hiking and when you expect to return.
• Carry and drink water. Remember it’s the water in your body, not the water in your canteen that keeps you fit. Carry enough water for your entire hike. Remember water for your dog. When your water is half gone, turn around and return to the trailhead.
• Wear appropriate clothing and footwear.
• A cell phone can be a lifesaver. GPS tracking is also useful.
• Don’t hike alone.
• Use a walking stick for support and to fend off threatening wildlife.
• Record your experiences with a camera.
• A signalling mirror can help rescuers locate you if you are injured.

CAUTIONS
- Teddy bear cholla (jumping cactus) have segments that readily detach and have very sharp spines that easily penetrate shoe leather. A large horn and piers are useful in removing them.
- Several species of rattlesnakes inhabit some of our parks. If encountered, always leave them a way to escape. Do not tease or harass the snake. The result may be a bite and a trip to the hospital. Always look where you place your hands and feet. When hiking, walk with a heavy foot. The snake will sense your approach and leave before you get to it.
- Scorpions and spiders may be found under rocks, in bushes and other places. As with snakes, always look where you place your hands and feet and before you set it down.
- To avoid bees, yellow jackets and wasps, do not wear perfume or scented lotions. Avoid swarms and nests. Do not make loud noises. Bees, yellow jackets and wasps will defend their hives and nests if threatened. If attacked, get out of the area as quickly as possible and call 911 and/or Park Rangers. Report the attack to the Glendale Parks and Recreation Department at 623-930-2820.
- Other wildlife (coyotes, fox, javelina, etc.) — If encountered on the trail, freeze where you are. Leave a route for the animal to escape. If you are blocking the only escape route, slowly move out of the way and allow the animal to pass.

WILDLIFE
One of the things hikers and nature lovers enjoy about this park is the wildlife. You may encounter many Sonoran Desert inhabitants in Thunderbird Conservation Park, including everything from hummingbirds to vultures, and jackrabbits to coyotes. In fact, there are more than 60 species of birds, reptiles and mammals make the area home. For a complete list of the wildlife in the area, visit www.glendaleaz.com/parksandrecreation/thunderbirdpark.cfm.

VIEWING BLINDS
Four wildlife viewing blinds are located at Thunderbird Conservation Park in the southern section of the park.

PICNIC AREAS
Thunderbird Conservation Park has 15 ramadas (covered picnic areas). Ramadas 1-13 are available for reservation or are on a first-come, first-served basis when not reserved.
