DESERT DIAMOND ARENA TRANSFORMATION COMPLETE

Glendale's arena ready to wow future visitors

GLENDALE, AZ – The wait is over! Desert Diamond Arena has officially wrapped its $42 million renovation—and it's looking better than ever. Following a private media preview on Wednesday, fans can now get excited about the upgraded experience at the venue. From brand-new fan amenities and expanded food and drink options, the arena is ready to impress. Among the standout additions are new premium spaces like upgraded suites, the Bassline Bar, Encore Club on Three, Studio 623, and The View Lounge & Bar.

“This arena is a premier destination for major events, and I can see the biggest names in entertainment choosing to perform here,” said Glendale Mayor Jerry P. Weiers. “These improvements go far beyond a fresh coat of paint. Every new space was designed with fans in mind, from the upgraded concessions to the premium experiences.”

The arena will roll out the red carpet this weekend as country superstar Chris Stapleton takes the stage for a pair of sold out shows Friday, August 8, and Saturday, August 9. It's the perfect kickoff to a new era at Desert Diamond Arena!
