GFD HIRING FIREFIGHTERS, APPLICATION PROCESS CLOSES JULY 22

Glendale, Ariz. — The Glendale Fire Department is now accepting applications for the position of Firefighter Trainee. The application process will close July 22, 2016, at 11:50 p.m. Arizona time.

The projected start date for the Glendale Fire Academy is November 2016.

Candidates must complete the City of Glendale application and have a National Testing Network (NTN) test score eligible for the 2016 Glendale Firefighter process by close of the City application process. Candidates, who do not have both of these, will be disqualified from the process.

The required minimum qualifications are:

- AT TIME OF HIRE:
  - Age: 18 years or older
  - Candidate Physical Ability Test (CPAT): Proof of passing limited to the period six months before starting date. Glendale will only accept a CPAT from Qualified Agencies such as National Testing Network, any Maricopa Community College, or a Qualified Agency list is located at <http://www.iaff.org/HS/Well/statelist.htm>
- BEFORE OR BY GRADUATION DATE OF THE ASSIGNED FIRE TRAINING ACADEMY:
  - State of Arizona Emergency Medical Technician Certification/or National Certification; Unexpired/valid certification required.
  - Valid Arizona Driver's License
  - National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians certification
  - High school diploma or GED
