GLENDALE FAMILY DISPLACED BY HOUSE FIRE

Glendale, Ariz. — Glendale Fire Department responded to a single family house fire near 71st Avenue and Cavalier. Upon arrival of the fire companies, heavy fire was shooting out the front two windows and working its way into the attic. The family did escape safely with their pet dog. The fire caused significant damage and the family is displaced and is being assisted by the Red Cross and a Crisis Response unit. The cause of the fire is still under investigation. No injuries reported.
