GLENDALE FIRE DEPARTMENT HIRES NEW FIREFIGHTERS

Glendale, Ariz. — Seven recruit firefighters have been hired by the Glendale Fire Department and will start their training Monday, April 18. The new recruits will spend twelve weeks at the Glendale Regional Public Safety Training Academy preparing to become fire and rescue first responders.

The training includes the most up to date tactics for firefighting and Emergency Medical Services. The Glendale recruits are part of a larger class of 35 recruits representing fire departments from Peoria, Avondale, and Tolleson.

The recruit firefighters will fill positions vacated through attrition.
