GLENDALE 11 T.V. ANNOUNCES NEW EDITION OF “GLENDALE INSIDER”

Glendale, Ariz. —The new edition of the “Glendale Insider” features in-depth coverage of the grand opening of the new Maryland Avenue HOV ramps. City cameras were there as the first cars drove on the newly constructed HOV ramps at Maryland and the Loop 101, providing key access points for all of the major events around Glendale’s sports and entertainment district including the University of Phoenix, Jobing.com Arena and the Westgate Entertainment District.

Other stories in the 30-minute show include a sneak peak at the new West Valley Visitor’s Guide, a tourism magazine that benefits both locals and out-of-town travelers. Also, viewers will see how the Rose Garden volunteer group at Sahuaro Ranch Park keeps the roses so beautiful and a look at the opening of the new administrative headquarters for a large local corporation, the Pain Center of Arizona. We’ll also join in the 120th birthday party for the United Methodist Church of Glendale and take you to a heart-warming homecoming celebration at Ironwood High school for Paralympic Gold Medalist Josh Sweeney.

The “Glendale Insider” can be seen on Glendale 11 at various times throughout the day or each individual story can be seen on the city’s YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11. For more information about Glendale 11 or the new TV show, visit www.glendaleaz.com/glendale11.
