Garden Clubs

Looking for a garden club to join? The University of Arizona Maricopa County Cooperative Extension web site lists over 40 garden clubs in the Phoenix metropolitan area. Whether you're interested in learning more about growing roses or native plants, joining a garden club allows you to network with other plant enthusiasts. The list includes contact information and dates and times of meetings for a variety of garden clubs. Most garden clubs have a direct link to their website, too.
