G.A.I.N. 2011 “Are You Prepared”

WHAT: G.A.I.N. is an acronym for “Getting Arizona Involved in Neighborhoods”; a program supported by the Glendale Police Department. It was designed to heighten crime prevention and awareness, generate support and participation in local anti-crime efforts, strengthen community relations and send a message to criminals that our neighborhoods are organized and working together with law enforcement.

WHO & WHERE: All Neighborhood Watch Groups, Registered Neighborhoods and HOA’s, Mobile Home Parks, Apartment Communities, and interested residents in the City of Glendale are invited to participate by hosting G.A.I.N. events in their neighborhoods

WHEN: G.A.I.N. 2011 Kick Off Event – This Saturday, September 17, 2011, at the Vineyard Church at 6250 W Peoria Avenue from 9 – 11:30am. All citizens interested are encouraged to attend.

G.A.I.N. Night – Neighborhood Events will be Saturday November 5, 2011 involving all neighborhood in the City of Glendale.

WHY: The reclaiming of your neighborhoods, a sense of ownership, reduction in crime, freedom from fear, improved quality of life, pride in your neighborhood and a sense of community, and preparation for natural disasters.

This past year we were all witnesses to several, whether related situations that resulted in massive damage: hail storms, tornados, wild fires, floods and haboobs. Our residents need to know what to do in the event these types of situations reoccur. Information on what you should do, and what's available to you will be presented. The theme for G.A.I.N this year is "Are you Prepared"
