Glendale Police Detectives Arrest David Romero

Glendale, Ariz. – On January 11, 2016, Glendale Police detectives arrested 18 year old David Romero at the Glendale Police main station located at 6835 N. 57th Drive. David came forward to speak with detectives and was brought to the police station this afternoon by family members and a friend. David and family members spoke with detectives. David Romero made no admissions.

Through their investigative efforts, Glendale Police violent crimes detectives working the case were able to develop probable cause for the arrest of David Romero. Search warrants were obtained and served on David Romero for biological evidence and other items of evidentiary value. All evidence gathered, including evidence gathered at the scene, will be sent for forensic testing. Romero was booked and charged with five felony counts including two counts of aggravated assault on a police officer. He is being transported to the Maricopa County 4th avenue jail. The form IV and booking photo can be obtained from MCSO.
