Glendale Police Arrest Driver in Fatal Collision

GLENDALE, Ariz. – On Saturday, July 2, 2016, at approximately 2:24am, Glendale Police responded to a collision in the intersection of North 45th Avenue and West Camelback Road, involving a truck and a motorcycle. The motorcycle was traveling eastbound on Camelback Road when it was determined that the driver of the truck ran the stop sign northbound on 45th Ave, colliding with the motorcycle and landing on its side. The Phoenix Fire Department responded to treat the injured. 53-year old, Kevin Terry Douglas was declared deceased on scene. Douglas was not wearing a motorcycle helmet. The driver of the truck was treated with non-life threatening injuries at a local valley hospital.

Detectives from the Glendale Vehicular Crimes Unit assumed the investigation. The driver of the truck, 38- year old Roberto Tafolla Villegas, showed signs of impairment. After Villegas was treated for injuries and released from the hospital he was booked into jail on two felony counts; one count of manslaughter and one count of causing a death while driving on a suspended license. He is being transported to the Maricopa County 4th Ave jail.
