Glendale Police Arrest Homicide Suspect 12 Hours After News and Social Media Release of His Photo

GLENDALE, Ariz. – On Friday, February 16, 2018, just after 1AM, William Bradfield turned himself in at a Phoenix Police station. He reported to police that he was wanted for murder. He went on to explain to the officers his face was shown on the News for stabbing his 44-year-old girlfriend, Rose Watford.

William was transported to the Glendale Police station where he was interviewed. Detectives had been working diligently on this homicide investigation since Rose's death at the beginning of the week on Monday, February 12, 2018. William was booked on one count of 2nd Degree Murder, two counts of kidnapping, and one count of felony threats.
