Glendale Police Make Arrest in Triple Shooting

Glendale, Ariz. – On Monday, June 6, 2016, Glendale Police received a 911 call just before 11pm of an unknown trouble at a residence in the 6200 block of N. 88th Avenue. A family member who resides at the residence called police to report that she had heard loud banging noises in the home and then discovered her in-laws inside the home covered in blood. She took refuge with two young children in a bedroom and called police for help. On arrival, officers located three critically injured adults with life threatening gunshot wounds.

47 year old son Alex Kuhn and his mother, Peggy Kuhn, 69 years old, were pronounced deceased at a local valley hospital. Results from the autopsies have concluded and detectives are now investigating a confirmed double homicide. Alex's father Robert Kuhn is still recovering from his injuries.

Since the incident the Glendale Investigations Unit has worked tirelessly to solve the case. On July 6, 2016 they were able to gain enough information to establish probable cause on Kipling Harris, a 34 year old male and Kim LaCount, a 39 year old female. Kipling and Kim both admitted to their involvement in murder. They are both known to the victims. Kipling Harris has been arrested for 2 counts of first degree murder, and 1 count of attempted murder.

Kim LaCount was also arrested and charged with 1-count of conspiracy to commit murder.
