Glendale Police New Media Relations Officer Joins the Team

Glendale, Ariz. – As of June 28, 2016, the Glendale Police Department will welcome a new officer in charge of media relations. Officer Tiffany Smith will be moving into the position that Officer Tracey Breeden has vacated. She was born in South Korea and was raised in Phoenix.

Tiffany was in the United States Coast Guard before beginning her law enforcement career. She was hired by the Glendale Police Department in 2005. Tiffany has worked as a patrol officer for the majority of her career and has trained new police officers as a field training officer for the past six years. She is also a certified defensive tactics instructor. Tiffany has received the Glendale Police Department's Exceptional Merit Award and a Life Saving Award. She holds a bachelor's degree in political science from Arizona State University.

Please welcome her to the Glendale Police Public Information Office.
