Glendale Police Release Name In Possible Murder Suicide

GLENDALE, Ariz. – On March 16, 2012, a little before 1pm, Glendale Police received a 911 call from a distraught adult female who had just arrived home at her residence in the 8700 block of W. Morten Avenue. She reported to police that she had just found her husband and two small children deceased inside the home. Glendale Officers and Glendale Fire personnel responded to the scene and confirmed there were three deceased persons inside the home.

Glendale Police Detectives from the homicide division assumed the investigation. The three deceased persons within the residence were the female caller's husband and their two small boys, both under the age of 5 years old. All four resided together at the residence where the incident occurred. At this time, the investigation has led detectives to believe this incident was a murder suicide.

The names of the victims to include the wife and her two boys are not being released at this time. The Glendale Police Department is releasing the name of the husband / father located deceased at the scene. His name is Carlos Iriarte, age 30.

There is no additional information, including causes of death, to be released this weekend regarding the investigation. This investigation is still ongoing. No further updates will be provided until next week during business hours. Thank you for your cooperation.
