Glendale Police Release Names from Double Suicide

GLENDALE, Ariz. – On Saturday, April 8, 2017, Phoenix SIU was attempting to serve a search warrant at a home near 5600 W Mescal, in reference to child pornography. At approximately 7:18PM, as Phoenix was entering the home, they reported hearing a single gunshot. Upon completing the search warrant Phoenix Police located one male and one female, both adults, who were deceased. No other persons were located inside the home. The Glendale Police Department was called to assume the investigation.

The two subjects were pronounced deceased on scene. The subjects have been identified as Glendale resident, 47-year-old Dan Ray Reynolds and Phoenix resident, 32-year-old Jessica Rochelle Garcia. Both individuals suffered from self-inflicted gunshot wounds which were confirmed as the cause of death by the Maricopa County Medical Examiner's Office.

There are no photographs of the victims available.
