Glendale Police Seek Assistance with Homicide

GLENDALE, Ariz. – On Sunday, July 12, 2015, just before 9:00pm, the Glendale Police Department received multiple 911 calls of shots fired and a person on the ground near 6600 W. Georgia Avenue. Upon arrival, Glendale Police Officers located 25-year old Damon Brandon Yazzie, a resident of Chinle, AZ, who had suffered multiple gunshot wounds. He was treated and pronounced deceased by the fire personnel at the scene.

Glendale Violent Crimes Detectives responded to the scene and assumed the investigation. We have attached photos of two individuals who detectives would like to speak with and feel that they may have useful information about the homicide. These photos were obtained from a transit bus. The Glendale Police Department encourages anyone that has information related to the shooting or the identity of the persons in the attached photos call Glendale Police Detectives at (623) 930-3325 or Silent Witness at 480-WITNESS.
