Glendale Police Seek Community's Help in Weekend Homicide

GLENDALE, Ariz. – On Friday, July 7, 2017, just after 9:00pm, Robert Jacobson parked his gray 2005 Acura TSX four door sedan at the carwash located at 59th Ave and West Missouri Avenue. Robert was parked in a vacuuming stall located on the Southside of the business. He was shot and killed while in the process of cleaning his vehicle and was found deceased at the scene a few hours later by taxpayers who called the police.

Glendale homicide detectives responded to the scene and assumed the investigation. Detectives believe there are individuals out there that may have information that can help solve this case. They are asking for those individuals to come forward, and they are asking for the public's assistance in identifying the suspect(s) responsible for this shooting. If you have any information that might help detectives solve this case, please contact Glendale Police at 623-930-3000 or Silent Witness at 480-WITNESS.
