Glendale Police Seek Help Identifying Armed Robbers

GLENDALE, Ariz. – On Thursday, August 18, 2016 at approximately 5:43am, two masked men entered the convenience store at North 47th Avenue and West Bethany Home Road. The male suspects brandished a rifle and a handgun. The suspects demanded and obtained US currency. The suspects fled from the business in a vehicle after firing two shots inside the store. At this time both suspects are described as Hispanic males 20-25 years of age. The investigation is ongoing at this time.

The Glendale Police Department encourages anyone that has any information, no matter how irrelevant it may seem, to please call Glendale Police detectives at (623) 930-3000.

Please see attached photos below of the armed robbers from the convenience store surveillance cameras.
