Glendale Police Seek Help Solving 10 year old Cold Case Homicide

GLENDALE, AZ - On May 28th, 2005, Scott Todd Whallon was shot to death during a road rage incident in the area of 6700 W. Peoria Avenue. Today is the tenth anniversary of Scott's brutal murder, and his case still remains unsolved. On that day Glendale Police Officers responded to a shots fired call. Scott was discovered shot to death while he was a passenger in a vehicle driving with friends in the area. A possible suspect vehicle had been observed by witnesses and was described as a newer model Champaign colored Chevrolet Impala with stock tires and rims. Investigators have no new information or leads in this case.

The Glendale Police Department is seeking the public's assistance. Investigators believe this murder that happened ten years ago can be solved with the help of the public. Glendale Police Investigators are seeking the community's help finding the person responsible for the murder of Scott Todd Whallon. The Glendale Police Department encourages anyone that has information on this cold case homicide to call Glendale Police Detectives at (623) 930-3000 or Silent Witness at 480-WITNESS. See attached photo of Scott below.
