Traffic Information for Saturday's Big Games

GLENDALE, Ariz. – On Saturday, January 16, 2016, Glendale will host both the Arizona Coyotes and the Arizona Cardinals. The Coyotes will take on the New Jersey Devils at 12:00pm at the Gila River Arena. Shortly after, the Arizona Cardinals will battle the Green Bay Packers at the University of Phoenix Stadium with a kickoff time of 6:15pm.

Fans and visitors to the area should anticipate heavy traffic in the area to include the Tanger Outlets and Westgate Entertainment District. Due to the dual sporting events, there have been several changes to the usual travel routes and parking lots. Fans are encouraged to review any parking information provided on their passes for both games. Maps for both events are attached for review. Below are highlights of the changes and planned routes.

Up to the minute traffic updates and important information will be provided by the Glendale Police Department on their Twitter page, @GlendaleAZPD.

Arizona Coyotes Parking: There will be no pay parking in the University of Phoenix Stadium for the hockey game. Fans with PURPLE garage passes will use Maryland Avenue, but will travel north to Coyotes to access the garage from the north side. Fans who wish to use LOT G will not have access from 91st Avenue. They will access the lot from Coyotes or Maryland, using 93rd Avenue.

Arizona Cardinals Parking: Parking lots will open at 2:00pm. Fans with BLUE passes will exit at Bethany Home Road from the Loop 101. The BLUE lot has moved specifically for this game.
