Glendale Police Asking for Help Solving Homicide

GLENDALE, Ariz. – On Tuesday, January 17, 2012, Glendale Officers were called to the apartment complex at 7102 N. 43rd Avenue. Bryan Clark, a 25 year old Native American male, was found shot to death in his apartment after a citizen saw Bryan’s body through a broken window.

The investigation, to date, has led Glendale Police to believe Bryan was killed sometime during the weekend of January 13, 2012. Investigators also believe that property was stolen from Bryan’s apartment.

Glendale Police Detectives are seeking the community’s help identifying the suspect (s) involved and solving the case. The Glendale Police Department encourages anyone that has information on Bryan’s death to call the Glendale Police Department at (623) 930-3000 or silent witness at 480-WITNESS.
