New Glendale Police PIO Officer

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- Police Chief Steve Conrad has selected Officer Tracey Breeden to fill the Public Information Office (PIO) position. Officer Breeden will take over those duties beginning Tuesday, July 19, 2011. Officer Breeden is replacing Officer Gerald Sydnor who has accepted a new assignment in the Personal Management Unit.

Officer Breeden is excited about her new assignment and the challenges associated with the new position. "I am eager to make a positive contribution to the department in my new position, and I am thankful for the opportunity to further enhance my skills and knowledge within my profession."

Tracey Breeden is in her eighth year of service in the field of law enforcement. Before joining the Glendale Police Department in 2009 as a lateral transfer officer, Tracey proudly served with the California Highway Patrol and Tulsa County Sheriff's Office. Tracey has served in various capacities in law enforcement. In addition to performing general police and patrol duties, Tracey has worked in court services and in civil / domestic violence divisions. Tracey also served as an ATF task force officer and ATF explosives canine handler. This included assisting federal, state and local law enforcement with the investigation of explosives, homicide and gun related crimes. As a task force officer, Tracey worked high profile dignitary details and court trials as well as national sporting and political events. Tracey has also partnered with schools for crime prevention presentations and literacy programs. Her most current assignment with the Glendale Police Department was as a patrol officer in the northern district.

Please continue to use the on-call pager (602) 590-5733 to contact the Glendale Police PIO's for immediate assistance.
