Glendale Police Seek Help in Locating Missing Adult

Glendale, Ariz. – At approximately 8:00 AM on 11-1-13 Glendale Police responded to a call of an endangered missing adult from the 5500 block of W. Belmont Ave.

Upon arrival it was learned that the adult, Alfred Smith, had been missing since approximately 5:00 AM and that the family had been searching for him prior to calling police. Alfred is 57 years old and is described as a black male, 5'5", 130 lbs. with gray hair, brown eyes, and a gray beard. Alfred has a thin build with short, curly gray hair, a thin gray beard and is missing teeth in the front. He was last seen wearing a plain white tee shirt, blue jean shorts and beige colored socks with no shoes.

Alfred is from out of state and came in last night to stay at a relative's house. Around 5:00 AM Alfred walked out of the residence and has not returned. He left with no identification, no phone, no money and no shoes and is completely unfamiliar with the area. Alfred has a traumatic brain injury and has a reduced mental capacity. He also takes medication for seizures and cancer. He walks with a limp and has multiple scars on his head from the injury. Alfred is friendly and responds to his name and his nickname, "Junior." Alfred likes to smoke cigarettes and may be around parks and businesses picking up cigarette butts.

Anyone that has information as to the whereabouts of Alfred or who sees Alfred is asked to call Glendale Police immediately at 623-930-3000.

A photograph of Alfred is attached however Alfred is not thought to be wearing glasses at this time.
