School Supply Donations Being Accepted by the Glendale Police Department For Children in Iraq

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Members from the Glendale Police

Department have set up donation bins for school supplies at all of their police stations. The school supplies gathered will be donated to children who are in need of them in Kirkuk, Iraq.

The Emergency Preparedness Branch Chief for the Glendale Police Department is Major Kip Schlum. Major Schlum is currently deployed in Kiriuk, Iraq, and has made the request for donations of school supplies to be sent to the children there. The school supplies that are needed include glue sticks, colored markers, colored pencils, erasers, pencil sharpeners, safety scissors, and plastic rulers.

Donation bins will be in the lobbies of the main Glendale Police Department located at 6835 N. 57th Dr., the Foothills Substation located at 6255 W. Union Hills Dr., and the Gateway Substation located at 6261 N. 83 Ave. Donations will be accepted starting on Thursday 03/19/09 and will be on going until further notice.

For additional information about this project, please contact Sgt. Kim Dominguez at 623-930-3158.
