If you see something, say something!

Glendale, Ariz. – With the holidays approaching, it means that college football bowl season is approaching as well. This year the Fiesta Bowl at University of Phoenix Stadium will be home to one of the semi-final games-the Dec. 31st showdown between Ohio State University and Clemson University. The city of Glendale as well as the Glendale Police Department are excited to be a part of the Fiesta Bowl and committed to providing a safe and fun atmosphere for all of those who attend the game and festivities.

This exciting activity brings with it a heightened awareness for safety. The Glendale Police Department is asking that anyone coming to the game share the same heightened awareness all staff there will have. Remember: if you see something, say something! We welcome your input and please call the Glendale Police Department at 623-930-3000 if you notice anything suspicious. Working together we can all enjoy another fantastic Fiesta Bowl!
