

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
CONTACT: Sgt. Brent Coombs or Officer Tracey Breeden
(602) 590-5733

October 31, 2011

GLENDALE, Ariz. – The Glendale Police Department continues to investigate the Line of Duty Death of Officer Bradley Jones. In the best interest of the ongoing investigation and with respect to the Jones’ family, the police department will not discuss specific details related to this tragic situation.

As is standard in any situation like this, Officers involved in discharging their firearms in the line of duty are placed on paid administrative leave during the days immediately following a life-threatening incident like this. Glendale Officers John Rebholz an 8 yr Veteran, Officer Michelle Burks a 4 yr Veteran, and Officer John Davidge a 3 yr Veteran were involved in discharging their duty weapons when presented with a threat to their lives by suspect Ryan Heisler. Ryan Heisler is still listed in critical condition at a valley hospital.

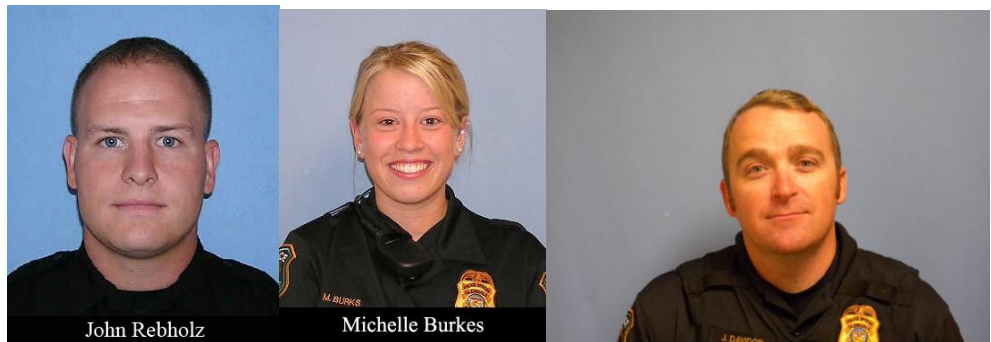

The Glendale Police Department wants to remind the public that donation are being accepted by for the family in this time of great need by the Arizona 100 club, as well as an account set up at the Arizona Federal Credit Union: “The Bradley Jones Memorial Fund” ###

The Glendale
Police Dept. is a nationally accredited agency

Community and Police – Working in Partnership

It’s our town, please
Slow Down

City of Glendale
Public Safety
6835 N. 57th Dr.
Glendale, AZ 85301
www.glendaleaz.com

John Rebholz

Michelle Burkes

John Davidge