Update: Glendale Police Investigate Triple Shooting

Glendale, Ariz. – On Monday, June 6, 2016, Glendale Police received a 911 call just before 11pm of an unknown trouble at a residence in the 6200 block of N. 88th Avenue. A family member who resides at the residence called police to report that she had heard loud banging noises in the home and then discovered her in-laws inside the home covered in blood. She took refuge with two young children in a bedroom and called police for help. On arrival, officers located three critically injured adults with life threatening gunshot wounds. They were treated at the scene by paramedics and transported to a local valley hospital. All three adults are still in serious, life threatening condition at the time of this writing.

Four adults and two children reside in the home. The 47 year old husband of the 911 caller and their two children, ages 7 and 8, reside in the home with the husband's parents. The husband's father is 69 years old, and the mother is 65 years old. The husband and the parents were the three critically injured adults located at the residence with life threatening gunshot wounds. The 39 year old wife and the children did not sustain any injuries as a result of this incident.

Glendale Police detectives assumed the investigation and are currently still obtaining evidence and processing the scene. At this time, information leads detectives to believe there are no outstanding suspects in this case and no arrests have been made. In addition, the 39 year old wife of the 47 year old husband is not a suspect in this case. Interviews with family members are still being conducted in this investigation.

GAAt this time, detectives cannot confirm the shooter or a motive yet in this shooting. Detectives are hopeful to obtain additional information and evidence as they continue to process the scene and finish conducting interviews. The investigation is ongoing, and additional updates will be provided as information is received.
