Update - Second Subject Deceased from Triple Shooting

GLENDALE, Ariz. – On Monday, June 6, 2016, Glendale Police received a 911 call just before 11pm of an unknown trouble at a residence in the 6200 block of N. 88th Avenue. A family member who resides at the residence called police to report that she had heard loud banging noises in the home and then discovered her in-laws inside the home covered in blood. She took refuge with two young children in a bedroom and called police for help. On arrival, officers located three critically injured adults with life threatening gunshot wounds.

The 47 year old son, Alex Kuhn, was pronounced deceased at a local hospital. Alex's father, 69 year old Robert Kuhn, is in stable condition. Peggy Kuhn, was pronounced deceased the day prior.

At this time, detectives cannot confirm the shooter or a motive yet in this shooting. Detectives are hopeful to obtain additional information and evidence as they continue to process the scene and conduct interviews.

The investigation is ongoing, and additional updates will be provided as information is received.
