Update – Suspect Booked From Feb 12th Phoenix Officer Involved Shooting in Glendale

GLENDALE, Ariz. – 26 yr old Jeff Lusk was released from a valley hospital last night from injuries he sustained after being shot by a Phoenix Police Officer in the City of Glendale back on Sunday February 12, 2012. Lusk, a Phoenix arson suspect, advanced on officers in a threatening manner with a jagged section of glass, after being contacted by Officers in the backyard of a Glendale home.

Directly after being discharged from a valley hospital, Glendale Detectives booked Lusk into the 4th Avenue Jail on (2) counts of Aggravated Assault on Police Officers involved in the incident. Attached is the booking photo of Jeff Lusk taken on 2/21/12.
