Update: Glendale Police OIS

GLENDALE, Ariz. – On July 31, 2018, the U. S. Marshals Violent Offender Task Force was searching for a 23-year-old white male identified as Skyler Martin who had walked away from a supervised off-site Arizona Department of Corrections (AZDOC) work crew. Martin went missing from a work site at the Maricopa County Animal Shelter in February of 2018. Officers with the U.S. Marshals Violent Offender Task Force were able to locate Martin at a residence near 2700 E. Baseline Road within the City of Phoenix.

On July 31, 2018, just before 5:30PM, Glendale Police K-9 Officer Wes Zygmont and K-9 Mick were involved in the OIS. Unfortunately, Glendale Police K-9 Mick was struck during the exchange of gunfire and taken to a local valley animal hospital where he was treated and underwent surgery for two separate gunshot wounds. Mick is currently recovering. Attached are photos of K-9 Officer Zygmont and his partner K-9 Mick.
