Update to Convenience Store Homicide

Glendale, Ariz. – On March 10th, 2014, at approximately 1:45am in the morning, Glendale Police Officers responded to a call of a shooting at the AM/PM convenience store located at 9920 W. Glendale Avenue. Upon arrival, officers located an adult male down outside the convenience store with several gun shots wounds to the body. The victim was treated at the scene and transported to a local valley hospital with life threatening injuries. Daniel Scott White, a 26 year old resident of Glendale, was later declared deceased at the hospital.

The investigation revealed a white adult male had purchased gasoline at the AM/PM convenience store. As the suspect exited the convenience store and began to leave in his vehicle, he became engaged in a verbal altercation with convenience store employee Daniel White, who was outside of the store at the time. At some point during the verbal altercation, the suspect produced a gun and shot Daniel several times. The motive of the shooting is still unknown.

The suspect was a white male adult, average height, weighing 180 to 200 pounds, wearing a dark colored hoodie. The suspect fled the scene prior to police arrival in an older model 4 door sedan, appearing to be blue in color.

Glendale Police Homicide Detectives are actively working this investigation. Detectives continue to gather information and analyze evidence related to this case. Detectives are also working in cooperation with the Tempe Police Department to determine if their suspect from the DPS Officer Involved Shooting is the same suspect responsible for the homicide of Daniel White. Detectives can confirm based on information and evidence collected at the scene that the suspect and the suspect vehicle from the DPS Officer Involved Shooting appears to match the description of the AM/PM convenience store homicide suspect and suspect vehicle. No confirmation of a connection to this case can be made until analysis of evidence and forensics has been completed.

The Glendale Police Department encourages anyone that has information on Daniel's death to call the Glendale Police Department at (623) 930-3000 or silent witness at 480-WITNESS. No surveillance video is being released at this time. The investigation is still ongoing. No further updates will be provided today. Thank you for your cooperation.
