ARMED BANK ROBBER SOUGHT BY GLENDALE POLICE DEPARTMENT

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Detectives from the Glendale Police Department are seeking information on a male suspect who has committed two armed robberies in Glendale.

On Wednesday, February 10, 2010, at 1:14 p.m., the suspect entered the Wells Fargo Bank located at 7510 W Bell Rd, approached a teller and lifted his shirt, displaying a handgun in his waistband. He then handed her a note advising he was robbing the bank and demanding cash. The suspect was given a known amount of cash, after which he fled the bank on foot.

A second incident occurred on 03/12/09 at 1:17 pm. where the same male suspect entered the Arizona Federal Credit Union located at 5505 W Bell Rd. He approached the teller and handed her a note which demanded money. The suspect then verbally threatened to kill the teller if she pushed the “panic button”. He was given a known amount of money and he left the bank on foot. He may have used an older model (1960’s) gray primer Chevrolet pickup truck to leave the area.

The man is described as an Hispanic male, 25 to 45 years of age, between 5’3” and 5’6” in height, with an average build, a dark complexion and black hair to the shoulder, which could be a wig.
