GLENDALE COUNCILMEMBER JOYCE CLARK NAMED VICE MAYOR

Glendale, Ariz. – Yucca District Councilmember Joyce Clark has been appointed to serve as the vice mayor of Glendale. During a formal council meeting Tuesday, Jan. 8, the City Council selected Councilmember Clark for the rotating position. As vice mayor, Clark will be responsible for performing the duties of the mayor during the mayor's absence. City Council guidelines require councilmembers to nominate candidates for vice mayor each year.

Clark was first elected as Yucca District Councilmember in 1992 and served Glendale and the Yucca District from 1992 to 1996. In 2000, she successfully ran again for Yucca District Councilmember as a write-in candidate against the incumbent. She continues to be the voice of the Yucca District. Clark currently chairs the City Council Subcommittee on Business and is a member of the Council Code Review Committee.

"I am honored to have been selected as vice mayor of Glendale by my peers on the City Council," said Vice Mayor Joyce Clark. "I pledge to assist my mayor and fellow councilmembers as we all work to make Glendale more business friendly, to create new jobs for our citizens, to develop quality-of-life amenities for our residents and to further strengthen the fiscal health of our city."
