

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: April 14, 2017

CONTACT: Shelli Henson, Yucca District Council Assistant 623-930-2814

COUNCILMEMBER JOYCE CLARK HOLDS THE YUCCA DISTRICT SPRING MEETING APRIL 20

Meet city leaders and view architect's concept for West Branch Library

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Glendale Councilmember Joyce Clark invites all Yucca District residents to her District Meeting on Thursday, April 20 from 6 - 8 p.m. The location is Coyote Ridge Elementary School which is located at 7677 W. Bethany Home Rd. in Glendale. The meeting will be held in the school's cafeteria.

Residents will have the opportunity to hear from Glendale City Manager Kevin Phelps, and Glendale's newly appointed Chief of Police Richard St. John. They will also be able to see the architectural drawings for the first phase of the West Branch Library which will be located in Heroes Park. Residents will have the opportunity to offer input about the library concept and share their opinions and comments about issues important to them.

Residents will also have an opportunity to enter a drawing for two free tickets for the May 4th Zac Brown Band event at the city-owned Gila River Arena. You must be present to win, at least 18 years old and a resident of the Yucca district. Light refreshments will be served. Councilmember Clark looks forward to seeing you at the Yucca District Meeting!

The Yucca District is located in southern Glendale, generally bounded by 71st Ave. on the east, Sarival Ave. on the west, Camelback Road to the south and Northern Avenue to the north. The Yucca district also incorporates Westgate, the Glendale Airport and Luke Air Force Base. Residents can view the council district map for more detail at www.glendaleaz.com/CityCouncil/districtmap.cfm.

For more information or if you need special accommodations, please call 623-930-2249.