COUNCILMEMBER BART TURNER EXPLORES WATER CONSERVATION AND SUSTAINABLE LIVING PROGRAMS

Tuner to discuss special environmental practices for residents and businesses on latest “Glendale Today” show

GLENDALE, Ariz. - Barrel District Councilmember Bart Turner discusses the history of water conservation in Glendale and sustainable living programs to help residents and businesses with energy efficiency and water-wise techniques. Councilmember Turner joins Environmental Program Administrator Joanne Toms and Water Conservation Specialist Victoria Caster, Glendale’s very own “Green Team,” on the latest edition of “Glendale Today” show with Councilmember Bart Turner.

"Water-wise landscaping can be vibrant and colorful -- serving to attract butterflies and hummingbirds, as well as vitally important pollinators," said Councilmember Turner. "Glendale's water efficiency programs have helped residents, non-profits, and businesses save hundreds of dollars on their water bills."

Watch “Glendale Today” show with Councilmember Bart Turner, slated to begin airing Friday, March 16, at 8 p.m., on Glendale 11. The show is a production of city-owned Glendale 11 TV station and airs daily on Glendale 11. It is also available through the city’s online video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video.
