

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: July 23, 2014
CONTACT: Teresa Hawthorne, Glendale Civic Center, 623-930-4311

GLENDALE CIVIC CENTER AND LIVING ENERGY CO-HOST INSPIRIENCE, AN EVENT PLANNING EXPERIENCE

Glendale, Ariz. — The fourth annual INSPIRIENCE (formerly Arizona Prom Experience) will showcase at the Glendale Civic Center from 4 to 6 p.m., Thursday, Aug. 14.

INSPIRIENCE is a fun, interactive opportunity to meet and speak with vendors to inspire ideas for your next event. If you are planning a back-to-school event, prom, dance, formal ball, grad night, spirit week, Greek week, homecoming, carnivals, alumni events or holiday events, this is for you. Numerous vendors will be on hand featuring unique ideas for showcasing many event options such as music, photo booths, entertainment, decorating ideas, themed props and more. Space is still available for additional vendors; for more information, call 623-930-4311.

School and organizational planning committees, such as grade school parent/teacher organizations like PTA and PTSO groups, high school student councils and their sponsors, charter school planners, college and university clubs and organizations, fraternity and sororities and others are welcome to attend this free event in the main ballroom of the Glendale Civic Center, 5750 W. Glenn Dr., in historic downtown Glendale.

Guests interested in renting the Glendale Civic Center for their event can take a tour of the award-winning conference center.

No RSVP is required, but those who do reserve a spot in advance will receive a bonus entry for door prizes from event vendors. For more information, contact the Glendale Civic Center's Social Event Coordinator Teresa Hawthorne at 623-930-4311 or thawthorne@glendaleaz.com. To take a virtual tour of the Glendale Civic Center, visit www.glendaleciviccenter.com/videos.html.

###