GLENDALE OFFERS FREE LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM TO KEEP RESIDENTS INFORMED

GLENDALE, Ariz. – The City of Glendale invites residents to attend a legislative session update meeting on Thursday, March 18th. This update meeting is part of the free Legislative Link program that enables citizens to stay informed and closely track neighborhood-related matters and bills being discussed at the State Capitol.

Glendale's Neighborhood Legislative Link program not only keeps residents up to date on issues impacting their local community, it also provides citizens a way to actively engage themselves in the state law-making process.

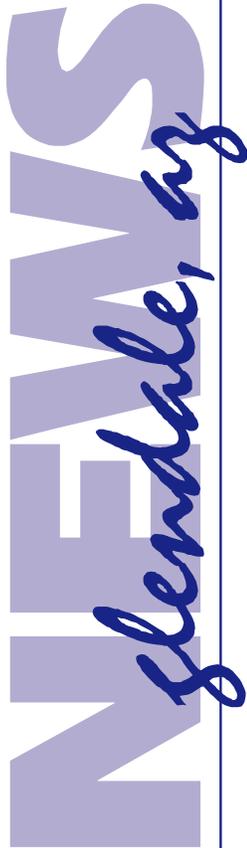

Mayor Elaine Scruggs welcomes residents to participate in this Legislative Link meeting on Thursday, March 18th from 6 – 8:00 p.m. at the Glendale Adult Center, 5970 W. Brown St.

At the meeting, residents will receive an overview:

- How the Arizona State Legislature works
- Who represents Glendale at the State Legislature
- How to track neighborhood issues being discussed at the State Legislature
- What issues are being discussed at the State Capitol

Residents are asked to register in advance of the meeting by calling 623-930-2813 or via email at dburt@glendaleaz.com by Tuesday, March 16th.

“This program provides Glendale residents the opportunity to learn about the Arizona Legislature and the legislative issues that may impact their quality of life, whether it relates to public safety, zoning or educational issues,” says Intergovernmental Programs Administrator Ryan Peters.

“Our residents’ active involvement during the 2010 legislative session can make a difference for the benefit of our neighborhoods and the community as a whole.”

Citizens who participate in the program receive e-mail updates and alerts from the city when neighborhood issues are being discussed at the State Capitol. Residents unable to attend the meeting, but interested in receiving the e-mail updates, can call the Intergovernmental Programs Office at 623-930-2813 or e-mail dburt@glendaleaz.com.
