FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Jennifer Stein, (623) 930.2958
Marketing/Communications Department

GLENDALE’S CHANNEL 11 RECEIVES NATIONAL RECOGNITION

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- Glendale 11 is the recipient of seven awards from the top government communications organization, the National Association of Telecommunications Officers and Advisors (NATOA.)

Glendale 11 received first through third place honors in the following categories.

- First Place - Event/Program Promotion: “This Is Glendale”
- Second Place - Documentary – Event Coverage: “Glendale’s Got Game: A Fiesta Bowl Celebration”
- Second Place - Documentary – Profile: “The Making of the Stadium”
- Third Place - Innovative Program: “The Making of the Stadium”
- Third Place – Library Program: “Check It Out @ the Library”
- Third Place - Promotion of a City/County: “This is Glendale”
- Third Place - Public Service Announcement: Street Racing Prevention PSA with Arizona Governor’s Office of Highway Safety

NATOA received more than 1,200 entries representing 180 agencies from 31 states and Canada. NATOA selects the award winners based on excellence in broadcast, cable, multimedia and electronic programming developed by municipal agencies.

“We are thrilled that our programming has been recognized on a national level,” said Laurie Berg Sapp, Glendale 11 station manager. “These awards reflect our diverse programming, and popular events and facilities that make Glendale unique.”

Glendale 11 airs on Cox and Qwest Channel 11, 24-hours a day, 7 days a week. For a complete viewer’s guide, visit www.glendaleaz.com/glendale11.