UPDATE ON GLENDALE STORM DAMAGE, CLOSURES

GLENDALE, Ariz. – City of Glendale staff are working diligently to assess damage and repair and restore operations and facilities for residents. Below is an update on issues and closures or restrictions still in place.

Roads and washes in Glendale that are still closed:

- Roadways into Skunk Creek Park - 53rd Ave. north of Union Hills and 69th Ave. just north of Bell Rd.

City parks and facilities that are still closed, or restricted include:

- Thunderbird Conservation Park trail heads have all reopened; however, ramadas at the park will not be in use due to standing water and mud
- Skunk Creek Linear Park at 51st Ave. and Beardsley to 73rd Ave. south of Bell Rd. remains closed
- Thunderbird Paseo Park at 51st Ave. to 75th Ave. north of Greenway Rd. and south of Bell Rd. remains closed
- Grand Canal Linear Park at 75th Ave. north of Camelback to the Loop 101 remains closed
- All city-owned sports fields will be closed for the next several days including the scheduled programming, which include Foothills, Thunderbird Paseo, Sahuaro Ranch parks and the Youth Sports Complex.
- Two of the city-owned dog parks remain closed for the next several days – at Foothills and Northern Horizon parks; however, the Sahuaro Ranch dog park has reopened.
- The equestrian trail parking lot at Bethany Home Road and 81st Avenue is closed due to extensive land slide issues

Other updates and progress includes the reopening of the skate courts at Foothills and Glendale Heroes parks.

In addition, the city's 23 retention basins are slowly receding and debris is being removed.

To report any downed trees and road hazards during regular business hours, call 623-930-2670. After 5 p.m. on a weekday and on weekends, call 602-582-6814. For any other assistance residents may need, a 24/7 phone line is set up through the Red Cross at 800-842-7349.
