GLENDALE SUMMER BAND CELEBRATES ITS 52ND SEASON OF MUSIC IN DOWNTOWN GLENDALE
State's Longest-Running Community Band Kicks Off Summer Concert Series June

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Glendale's favorite summer tradition is back for its 52nd season beginning June 7 in downtown Glendale. The eight-week concert series takes place each Thursday at 8 p.m. through July 26, in the E. Lowell Rogers Amphitheatre in Murphy Park, located at 58th and Glenn drives.

These free concerts are the perfect night out for the entire family, or bring your friends, neighbors and the whole gang! Bring lawn chairs or blankets for seating. Snacks and refreshments will be available for purchase at the concerts, which will go on through July 26. The series will feature a special Patriotic performance on Thursday, June 28 in celebration of Independence Day, as well as other themes each week.

The Glendale Summer Band is the longest- running community band in Arizona. The ages of the volunteer band members span several generations. Formed back in 1966, the band originally played at O'Neil Park, before moving to Murphy Park when the amphitheater was built. Music lovers of all ages will be entertained by approximately 100 musicians with their inspiring renditions of marches, polkas, movie medleys and other tunes.

The Glendale Summer Band concert series is sponsored by the Glendale Ambassadors. For more information, call the Glendale's Special Events hotline at 623-930-2299, or visit www.glendaleaz.com/events.
