GLENDALE CVB AND VISITOR CENTER MAKES MOVE TO CITY'S SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT DISTRICT THIS MONTH

Glendale, Ariz. -- Beginning June 18, the Glendale Convention & Visitors Bureau (CVB) and Visitor Center will have a new address, relocating to the Westgate Entertainment District from the Historic Downtown area, where it has been located since its inception in 2010.

That new location is at 95th and Maryland Avenues, inside the building adjacent to the Renaissance Hotel & Spa and Conference Center, which also houses the city's Glendale 11 studios. The CVB and Visitor Center will be on the third floor.

This relocation from Downtown Glendale to the city's vibrant Sports & Entertainment District, will put visitor services and staff in close proximity to the University of Phoenix Stadium, Gila River Arena, and the core of Glendale hotels, including the full-service property — Renaissance Glendale Hotel & Spa, a total of eight hotels located in the Westgate area and more under development.

"The city of Glendale is excited about the opportunities that this move will bring our tourism efforts," stated Diane Williams, interim administrator for the CVB. "This area is Glendale's convention & meetings hub, and with a focus on bringing more overnight visitors to the area, being close to the hotel and convention properties offers a new synergy for the Glendale CVB."

In addition, adjacent to and across the street from the Westgate Entertainment District are many more attractions that bring visitors, thereby necessitating a need for a Visitor Center in the Westgate area, including:
