“ROCKTALK” AT THE TEAGUE AUGUST 6

Glendale, Ariz. — Aspiring geologists of all ages are invited to “RockTalk” at the Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave., at 2 p.m., Wednesday, Aug. 6.

Don’t miss Earth Museum outreach volunteer Lynne Dyer’s collection of rocks, minerals and fossils. A long-time member of the Mineralogical Society of Arizona, the “RockTalker” (Dyer) will briefly discuss her collection, answer questions and allow everyone the opportunity to explore the display.

No registration is required for this free program. Call 623-930-3431 for more information about this program or visit www.glendaleaz.com/library.
